Water diversion has been restricted for the protection of other legal appropriators. In accordance with the provisions of the irrigation laws of the State of Nebraska, the owner or operator of this appropriation is prohibited from diverting water until further notified by an official of the Department of Natural Resources. Any person violating this order shall be subject to the penalty provided in Neb. Rev. Stat. 46-254, which reads as follows:

"Any person owning or in control of any ditch, reservoir or other device for appropriating or using water who willfully opens or closes, changes or interferes with any head gate or controlling gate, or by any method or means take any water from any natural stream, reservoir or other source, through any ditch or canal to any land or lands, or allows the same to be done, or uses or allows to be used any water upon any land or lands, or for any other purpose whatsoever, without authority from the Department of Natural Resources, or who shall store water in or release water from a reservoir other than in compliance with orders of the Director of Natural Resources or his or her representative, shall be guilty of a Class II misdemeanor. Each day that the water is allowed to run without authority from the Department shall constitute a separate offence."
